

My studies leave little doubt that access PLC poses an interference risk to HF bands. It is my opinion that the HF bands should be protected from any interference because HF is still the most reliable means of Emergency and other long distance communications.

W4WTK, David Watkins